No. 13554/SD4/82/GAD. Dated, Trivandrum, 10th February 1983.

Sub:—Public Services—Candidates advised by Public Service Commission not joining duty—Reporting to the Commission—Instructions—Issued

Ref:—Letter No. AII (5) 35122/81/GW dated 19-1-1982 from the Secretary, Kerala Public Service Commission.

When a candidate advised by the Public Service Commission for appointment to a post under the public services fails to join duty, the practice followed by the Commission till recently was to cancel the advice and advise a substitute continuing the rotation specified in the rules of reservation, from where it previously ended. The Commission have in their letter cited stated that, while disposing of the O. P. No. 2908/80-K, the High Court observed that the rule of reservation would be effective only if, to a post reserved for a community, a person is actually appointed. Following the direction of the High Court, the Commission have adopted a revised proccedure in the matter, whereby the vacancies arising by reason of failure of candidates to join duty will be filled up by advising candidates belonging to the same group, if available. The substitute advised in the vacancy caused by the failure of the candidate to join duty will be treated as having been advised in the same turn in the cycle of rotation, but he will take seniority only from the date of actual advice. To avoid hardship to the candidates so advised, the Commission have advised Government to instruct all appointing authorities to promptly report to the Commission the cases of candidates who fail to join duty on the expiry of the period of joining time allowed.

In the circumstances, Government direct that all the appointing authorities should report to the Public Service Commission promptly, on the expiry of the period of joining time allowed, the cases of candidates who were advised by the Public Service Commission for appointment but do not join duty within the joining time allowed.

Special Secretary to Government.
